Accessibility Statement

Effective Date: 18 April 2025

At Wow It Works, we are committed to making our website accessible to all users, including those with disabilities. We strive to ensure that everyone who visits our site has a user-friendly experience.

Our Commitment

We aim to follow best practices and applicable accessibility standards, including the Web Content Accessibility Guidelines (WCAG) 2.1, Level AA.

Measures We Take

To ensure accessibility, we:

- Use clear, consistent layouts and navigation
 - Include alternative text for images wherever possible
 - Ensure sufficient contrast between text and background
 - Enable keyboard navigation across key parts of the site
 - Use responsive design for different screen sizes and devices

Ongoing Efforts

We are continually working to improve the accessibility of our website. Our goal is to identify and correct accessibility barriers wherever possible.

Feedback

If you experience any difficulty accessing any part of our website, or have suggestions to improve accessibility, please let us know. We welcome all feedback and take it seriously.
